Securely hosted by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

Become an ATHN Affiliate today for tangible benefits.

Lead... Take a leadership role in advancing the health of patients with bleeding and blood clotting disorders.

Apply to serve on the ATHN Board of Directors, a committee or project review panel. Weigh in on policies pertaining to data, research, publication and affiliate status.

Collaborate... Join Hemophilia Treatment Centers (HTCs) around the country to create a robust community resource.

Expand the evidence base that is needed to establish clinical guidelines, evaluate outcomes, contribute to fact-based advocacy and improve care. Share in projects, an annual data summit and quarterly updates provided by ATHN.

Improve... Work with ATHN to improve your data collection process, ease data entry and allow more time for patient care.

Benefit... Access data manager support, up-to-date training and technical assistance. Then, reap benefits from the data to facilitate care improvement and research initiatives.
